

Application Announcement for the 2010-2011 HSU-CIRM Scholars Stem Cell Biology Training Program

We are accepting applications for the HSU-CIRM Scholars Stem Cell Biology Training Program for the 2009-2010 academic year. This program is designed to train motivated students for careers in the field of stem cell biology and regenerative medicine. Those selected to the program will participate in a paid twelve month research intensive internship at either The University of California, San Francisco Institute for Regenerative Medicine (UCSF) or The Stanford University Center for Human Embryonic Stem Cell Research and Education. Successful applicants will have demonstrated excellence in the following HSU coursework:

Biology 440 Genetics Lab

Biology 410 Cell Biology

Bio 499 Independent study

Biology 480/580 Stem Cell Research Methods.

Those selected to the program will receive A stipend of $2500/mo for the duration of the internship and $5000.00 towards student fees for the Fall '10 and Spring 2011 semesters

Applications for this program are due March 1st 2010.
