

WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST / CSU TRUSTEES' AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT

The William Randolph Hearst Foundation established an endowed scholarship fund in 1984 to honor William Randolph Hearst, founder of the Hearst newspaper chain. In 1999, the William Randolph Hearst Foundation partnered with the CSU Board of Trustees to create the William Randolph Hearst/CSU Trustees' Award for Outstanding Achievement. Contributions from CSU Trustees and private donors supplement the endowment. In addition, the awards are supplemented by the newly established Haworth Family Trust.

The awards recognize students who have overcome adversity, demonstrated financial need, and have attributes of merit including superior academic performance, significant personal achievements, and exemplary community service. The recipient who receives the highest score by the selection committee is designated the Trustee Emeritus Ali C. Razi Scholar and will receive a supplemental scholarship from an endowed fund established by Dr. Razi. The recipient who is judged by the selection committee as the student who has given the most to her or his university or home community is designated the Trustee Emeritus Murray L. Galinson Scholar and receives a supplemental scholarship from an endowed fund being established by Dr. Galinson.

There may be up to an additional twenty-one (21) scholarships awarded in the amount of $3,000 for the 2010-2011 academic year. Applicants must

- Demonstrate superior academic performance with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale and be in good academic standing.
- Demonstrate financial need as determined by the campus Financial Aid Office.
- Be currently enrolled as a full-time equivalent undergraduate or graduate student in any major field at a CSU campus and remain a CSU full-time equivalent student during the 2010-2011 academic year.

Applications are available through the HSU Financial Aid Office.

Financial Aid Offices on each campus will review the applications to ensure that they meet all requirements and, in consultation with the campus President, will select and forward one nomination to the CSU Foundation.

Applications are due to the HSU financial aid office by 5pm on Friday, April 2, and must include the following:

- A brief Personal Statement describing the student's
 1. background
 2. challenges they have encountered
 3. personal achievements
 4. educational pursuits
 5. community service, which should reflect a commitment to education and to the community
 6. goals and aspirations for the future.
- Two letters of reference from individuals such as teachers/professors, counselors, or community leaders who can attest to the candidate's meritorious performance and personal strengths and assess the nominee's potential for success. One of the letters of reference must be from an academic instructor.

- A current Official College Transcript including all undergraduate and graduate coursework completed
- A speech, approximately three minutes in length, which describes how the student has overcome adversity, how education has transformed his or her life, and the student's goals and aspirations for the future – particularly how they may hope to impact the lives of others. The speech should be submitted in both written and video format. The speech will help the Award Selection Committee determine the Razi and Galinson Scholars. The video needs no scoring, and should be in DVD format only.

The HSU financial aid office will then be responsible for submitting the final application to the Chancellor's office by May 21, and for helping the nominee in obtain the remaining portions of the entire application, including photos and nomination letter.

The CSU scholarship review selection committee will review the nominations and rate the nominees. The highest ranked student who best demonstrates need and merit will be designated the Ali C. Razi Scholar and will receive a supplemental scholarship. The student who has contributed the most to her or his university or home community will be designated the Murray L. Galinson Scholar and will receive a supplemental scholarship.

All recipients of the Hearst Trustees' Scholarships will be invited to attend (and their transportation will be covered) the awards presentation at the September 21, 2010 Board of Trustees meeting at the Chancellor's Office in Long Beach. They will be honored at a reception following the presentation.

All Applications need to be completely filled out. Do not leave any line blank. If there is no information to provide, "N/A" should be used.

Each item submitted with the application packet (i.e. "Academic Profile," "Personal Statement," "Biography," etc) should be clearly labeled.
