INSTRUCTIONAL SKILLS
1. demonstrate the ability to teach the state-adopted academic content standards for students in English-Language Arts (Grades 7-12).
2. deliver a comprehensive program of systematic instruction in word analysis, fluency, and systematic vocabulary development; reading comprehension; literary response and analysis; writing strategies and applications; written and oral English Language conventions; and listening and speaking strategies and applications
3. make language (e.g., vocabulary, forms, uses) comprehensible to students and the need for students to master foundational skills as a gateway to using all forms of language as tools for thinking, learning and communicating
4. teach the advanced skills of research-based discourse; incorporate technology into the language arts as a tool for conducting research or creating finished manuscripts and multimedia presentations; focus on analytical critique of text and of a variety of media; and provide a greater emphasis on the language arts as applied to work and careers
5. teach students how to comprehend and produce complex text, how to comprehend the complexity of writing forms, purposes, and organizational patterns, and how to have a command of written and oral English-language conventions
6. know how to determine the skill level of students through the use of meaningful indicators of reading and language arts proficiency prior to instruction, how to determine whether students are making adequate progress on skills and concepts taught directly, and how to determine the effectiveness of instruction and students' proficiency after instruction

Overall performance as a student teacher of English/Language Arts: (MT and US should check one.)

- ___ Exceeded expectations
- ___ Met expectations
- ___ Performed below expectations*

*Candidates who perform below expectations will be placed on contract, detailing those areas in which they need to seek improvement prior to the end of their student teaching phase. Implicit in being on contract is the fact that candidates who are not able to meet or exceed all expectations may be required to do additional student teaching and ultimately may not be recommended for a credential. Candidates who are already on contract from SED 764 and who have not met the conditions of that contract will not be recommended for a credential. Please call the Coordinator, Sheila Rocker Heppe, at 826-5870 with any questions.
