

Shadows of Our Sins

Workshop on the Legacy of the Hiroshima Bombing

November 12-14, 2009

Native American Forum
Behavioral and Social Science Building
Humboldt State University
Arcata, CA 95521

Thursday, November 12, 2009

5:30-7:30pm	Film and Discussion	In the Light of Reverence. (A film depicting the contemporary genocide of American Indians in relation to the sacred sites of the Hopi and the Winnemem Wintu Tribe of Northern California.) Speaker: Caleen Sisk-Franco. Caleen is internationally recognized as a spiritual leader and activist for her people. She is the leader of the Winnemem Wintu Tribe in Shasta County.
-------------	---------------------	--

Friday, November 13, 2009

11:30am-12:30pm	Booksigning, HSU Bookstore	Eric Freed, The Experience of the Atomic Bombing of Hiroshima in Poem: Hiroko Takanashi's Story and Poetry Shared by Fr. Eric Freed. Hiroshima Catholic Council for Justice and Peace. 2009.
7:00pm	Lecture	"The Experience of the Atomic Bombing of Hiroshima in Poem: The Tears of the Moon." Eric Freed.

Saturday, November 14, 2009

8:30am	Welcome.	Coffee and Pastries Provided.
9:00-10:00am	Session 1	Artistic Responses to War and Genocide Panelists: Paul Sutcliffe (Art) Eric Freed (Newman Center/Religious Studies)
10:15-11:15am	Session 2	The Violent Legacy of Colonial Expansion and the Denial of Genocide Panelists: Joseph Dieme (World Languages and Cultures) Maral Attallah (World Languages and Cultures)
11:30am-12:30pm	Session 3	Taking Collective Responsibility for War and Genocide Speaker: Samuel Oliner (Sociology, Emeritus)
12:30-1:30pm	Lunch	Light Lunch Provided (donation appreciated).
1:30-3:00pm	Session 4 (Breakout)	1. Nuclear Proliferation and U.S. Foreign Policy Panelists: Saeed Mortazavi (School of Business) William Herbrechtsmeier (Religious Studies) 2. The Destruction of Giant Buddhas in Afghanistan and the International Response Panelists: Kevin Whitesides (Undergraduate, Religious Studies) Sara Jaye Hart (Religious Studies) 3. Topic to be Decided Panelists: To be Decided
3:00-3:30pm	Closing	