Dear Friends:

Please accept my warmest greetings as you celebrate the 35th anniversary of the California Writing Project. I send my best regards for a wonderful year.

For over three decades, the California Writing Project has provided high quality learning services to improve K-12 and secondary student writing, and has focused on advancing the instructional skills of educational administrators, teachers, and aides. I commend the California Writing Project for its efforts to emphasize the importance of excellent written communication skills by offering workshops, classes, and programs that facilitate success. I would especially like to thank the directors, teachers, and staff for their strong commitment to improving the learning and achievement of students throughout the State of California.

Thank you for your outstanding work. I wish the California Writing Project many more years of success!

Sincerely,

Barbara Boxer
United States Senator
