

Three Year Part Time Program

The three-year, part time program requires students to attend year round (fall, spring, summer) and the field component is a concurrent model during the second and third years. Classes are held on Saturdays.

Curriculum Plan: Part Time Program (57 units)

FIRST YEAR

Fall Session

SW 500 Values and Ethics (3)

SW 550 Human Development, Diversity & Relationships: Change through the Life Course (3)

Spring Session

SW 570 Dynamics of Groups, Agencies, Organizations, & Communities (3)

SW 582 Methods of Social Work Research (3)

Summer Session

SW 530 Social Welfare Policy and Services (3)

Year End Total: 15

SECOND YEAR

Fall Session

SW 555 Foundation Internship (2 days/week, 240 hours) (3)

SW 540 Generalist Social Work Practice (3)

Spring Session

SW 555 Foundation Internship (2 days/week, 240 hours) (3)

SW 541 Social Work Practice in Native American Communities (3)

Summer Session

SW 641 Advanced Practice in Mental Health (3)

SW 642 Advanced Practice in Substance Abuse (3)

Year End Total: 20

THIRD YEAR

Fall Session

SW 655 Advanced Internship (2 days/week, 240 hours) (3)

SW 640 Advanced Practice in Child Welfare/Indian Child Welfare (3)

SW 643 Community Work (3)*

SW 680 – Special Topic/ SW 699 Independent Study (3)

* This course will actually occur over the entire year and may be offered in part via a variety of delivery methods including online, workshop format and other methods agreed to with the instructor.

 This course will occur over the year and will be done via independent study format with one primary faculty member and consultation with other faculty

Spring Session

SW 655 Advanced Internship (2 days/week, 240 hours) (3)

SW 644 Advanced Practice in Public, Private, & Tribal Organizations (3)

Summer Session

SW 630 Legal and Political Social Work (3)

SW 687 Capstone Seminar (3)

Year End Total: 23

Total units 57