

MARE 490 Sea Turtle Conservation & Ecology (3)

Offered
Summer 2026

All-encompassing look at the natural history of sea turtles and other marine reptiles including sea snakes, saltwater crocodiles and marine iguanas

Subjects include conservation and management, human impacts, reproductive and feeding ecology, evolution, taxonomy, and anatomy and physiology

Students will access the primary literature through paper discussions and an annotated bibliography

Contact jpturner@hawaii.edu for more information