What is Talent Pipeline Management® (TPM)?

A demand-driven, employer-led approach to close the skills gap. Built by business, for business, TPM provides employers and their education and workforce development partners with strategies and tools to co-design talent supply chains that connect learners and workers to jobs and career advancement opportunities. Supported by the TPM framework and delivered through the TPM Academy®, TPM facilitates change management to achieve better outcomes for all partners.

TPM Orientation
Educate community and employer stakeholders on the TPM framework and assess if TPM is a good fit for your community.

Strategy 1: Organize for Employer Leadership and Collaboration
Organize employers to identify the most promising opportunities for engagement around similar workforce needs.

Strategy 2: Project Critical Job Demand
Develop projections for job openings to determine with accuracy the type of talent and how much of it employers need.

Strategy 3: Align and Communicate Job Requirements
Create a shared language to better communicate competency, credentialing, and other hiring requirements of critical jobs in ways that allow employers to signal similarities and differences.

Strategy 4: Analyze Talent Supply
Identify where employers historically source their most qualified talent and analyze the capacity of those sources—as well as untapped talent sources—to meet projected demand.

Strategy 5: Build Talent Supply Chains
Build talent supply chains to create a positive return on investment for all partners.

Strategy 6: Engage in Continuous Improvement and Resiliency Planning
Use data from your talent supply chain to identify the most promising improvement opportunities to generate a better return on investment And plan for disruption to support a more agile talent pipeline.
