Daniel Albarra (Class of 2023)

Station Commander at Fire Station 60 in North Hollywood

"It has been my goal to further my education since I got hired on with the Fire Department. The skills learned here are very applicable to my current position. Being able to apply these skills as a fire captain is my most immediate goal, and if I decide to promote further, the skills will only enhance my readiness to take on more leadership responsibilities."

Galahad Zamora (Class of 2018)

Fire Battalion Chief in Public Safety Fire Suppression

"Career advancement was secondary to completing my educational goal. I wanted to set an example for my kids that it's never too late. I have always been a lifelong learner, but also knew that not having a degree would limit my opportunities to advance my career. This program made my career aspirations a reality."

Brent Bartlett (Class of 2022)

Fire Chief and Veteran (U.S. Marine Corps)

"This leadership role is a responsibility that I do not take for granted. The leadership studies program has positively impacted my professional and personal life by challenging me to evaluate my leadership style. The program introduced facets of tools and techniques, which have broadened my ability to reflect on my journey and how I want to develop."
