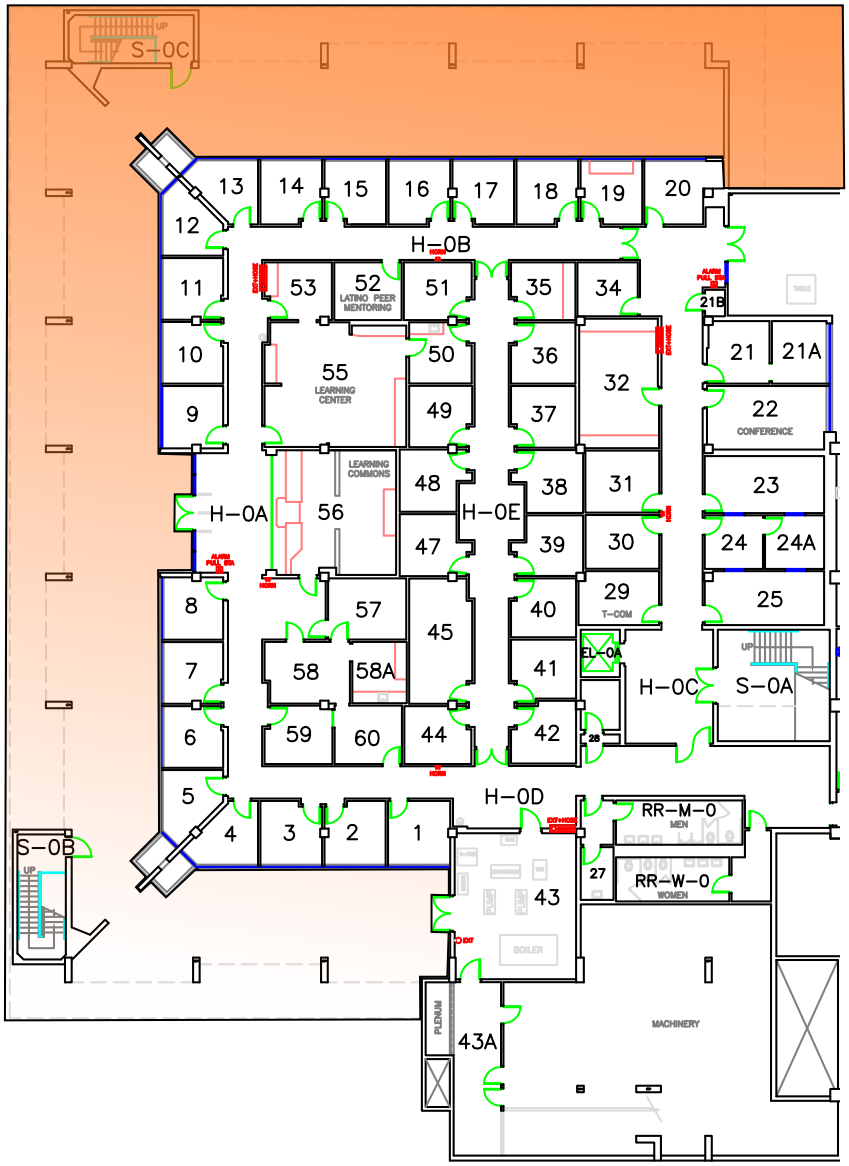
Library Basement Sound Map 5/17/19

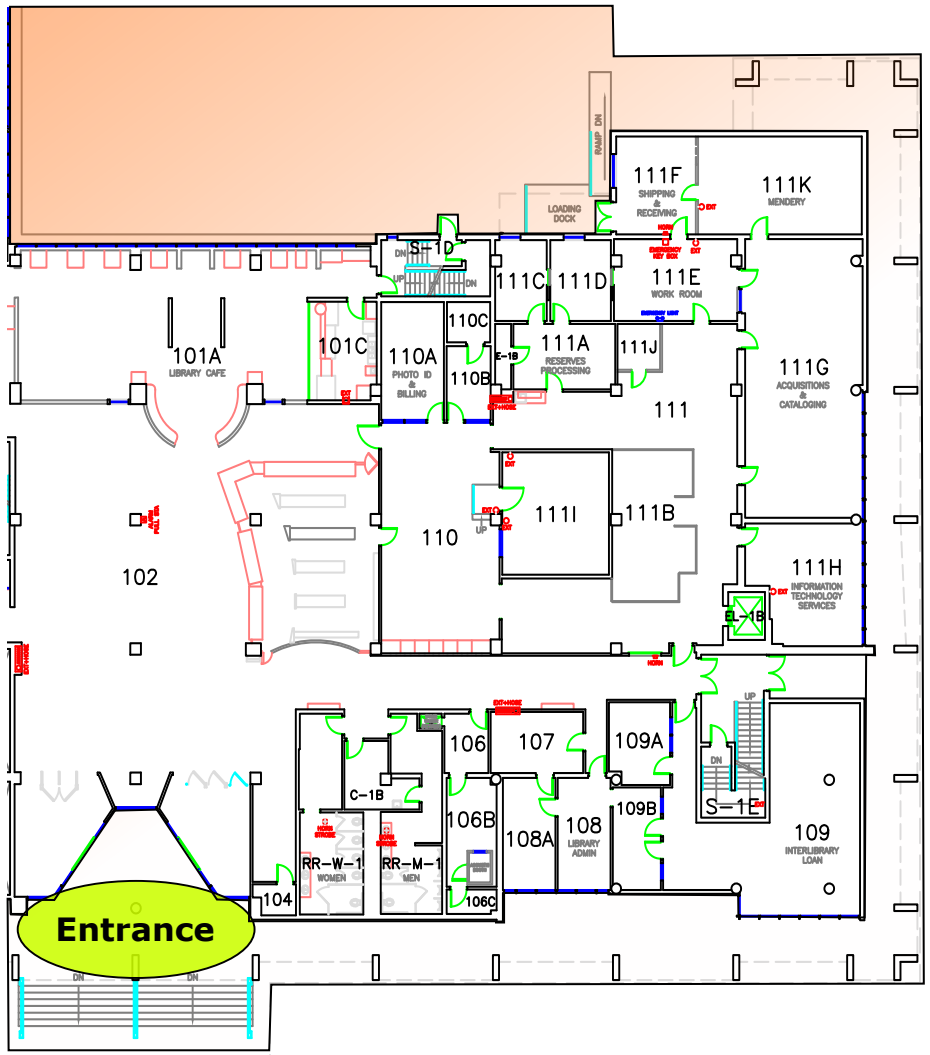
Key

Estimated loudness

Progress: Drilling on the basement columns is expected to continue next week through Friday. Hard demo of the walkways around the Library basement and the new openings at the stairwells will begin sometime in the week after next. Occupants above or near the construction areas should expect some measure of noise disturbance. Further updates pending.



Basement



First Floor