

HUMBOLDT STATE UNIVERSITY

A California State University Campus

A young man with curly hair, wearing a light blue jacket and a dark backpack, stands on a wooden ramp with a skateboard. He is holding a green cup and looking at a young woman. The woman has curly hair, wears a black long-sleeved shirt with a colorful pattern, dark pants, and a backpack. She is also holding a green cup. They are standing on a wooden ramp or walkway. To the left is a glass wall reflecting the scene. In the background, there are tall redwood trees and a lush green forest under a clear blue sky.

Deciding to study in the United States is a big step in life. The next big step is picking the university that's just right for you.

Welcome to Humboldt State University (HSU), the northernmost California State University Campus. Every year, students from around the world come to HSU for a high quality education and to live in a friendly, safe, and welcoming environment. At Humboldt State, you'll find faculty who get to know you by name, and plenty of opportunities for hands-on learning and real-world projects. You'll be part of a close-knit campus community that cares about your success, and is committed to social justice and the environment. And you'll be surrounded by an amazing natural environment of redwood forests, pristine coastline and wild rivers.
